

The University will continue to investigate the allegations of hazing involving Alpha Chi Rho as well as individual students. We will be reviewing appropriate next steps regarding University recognition of Alpha Chi Rho in light of the national decision. We understand that there is an appeal period and will await the results of any appeal action.

Terry Kane

Interim Senior Advisor to the President